Responsive Psalm 29

This Sunday for the responsive Psalm we will alternate between the North side (NS) of the sanctuary and the South side (SS). It is thought that this psalm was originally written to be said this way in the temple in Jerusalem, and that this psalm represents a growing storm, growing in intensity until we reach the word "GLORY". The last two lines are quieter after the storm has passed.

NS: Ascribe to the Lord, O heavenly beings,
ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

SS: Ascribe to the Lord the glory of his name;
worship the Lord in holy splendor.

NS: The voice of the Lord is over the waters;
the God of glory thunders, the Lord, over mighty waters.

SS: The voice of the Lord is powerful;
the voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

NS: The voice of the Lord breaks the cedars;
the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

SS: He makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
and Sirion like a young wild ox.

NS: The voice of the Lord flashes forth flames of fire.

SS: The voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness;
the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

NS: The voice of the Lord causes the oaks to whirl,
and strips the forest bare; and in his temple all say...

ALL: "GLORY!"

SS: The Lord sits enthroned over the flood;
the Lord sits enthroned as king forever.

All: May the Lord give strength to his people!
May the Lord bless his people with peace!
