Where is our Minister Doug Kendall this morning? I have been asked to do two things this week that take me away from Stittsville. First of all Erin Burns one of the young people from my first congregation is being ordained in the United Church in Lindsay this afternoon. In the United Church, candidates for ordination are allowed to invite two people who have been significant in their faith development to take part in their ordination. I was honoured to be asked to be one of those people and Session encouraged me to be there for Erin's ordination. I was also approached by our national church to be a Youth Counselor for the Young Adult Representatives at the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada meeting in London Ontario this week. These young people experience the annual meeting of our national church and have an opportunity to experience church life beyond their congregation. This will have me in London Ontario until Friday, but I will be back for next Sunday.

In my absence you can contact Gwen Gaebel our pastoral care coordinator, Geppy Walton in the church office, and the Rev. Wayne Mendard for any pastoral emergencies. Wayne's home number is 613-831-5047 and his cell is 613-853-0296.

*In the name of Jesus Christ, welcome.
If you are a visitor, please introduce yourself
and sign our Guest Register in the foyer.
Everyone is invited to join us for a time of fellowship downstairs following this morning's worship.*

us away from aggression and dominance. O God, by your Christ we are taught truly to move to love, forgiving and
