MJSSJON CAPSULES: November 2010

HUNGARY

Our gifts to Presbyterians Sharing support Mary Gorombey as she serves the Hungarian Reformed Church by working with refugees. Mary is helping integrate refugee youth into the Hungarian school system, teaching Hungarian-as-a-second-language and tutoring the students in a variety of subjects. She also works hard to confront stereotypes and changing attitudes in a climate that is not favourable to refugees. Mary is excited that one of her students passed an exam to be a nurses' aide, another has passed his citizenship exam, and another has graduated from elementary school and was accepted into a good high school. Let us celebrate the successes of these refugee students, and pray for Mary as she helps them discover a new life in Hungary.

How strange that men fight for peace and work for leisure.

No God, no peace. Know God, know peace.

A very special thank you to Joel Xavier for the wonderful addition to our service this morning.

*In the name of Jesus Christ, welcome.
If you are a visitor, please introduce yourself and sign our Guest Register in the foyer.
Everyone is invited to join us for a time of fellowship downstairs following this morning's worship.*

☀ Responsive Call to Worship

Today is a day of memories.

May we remember the sacrifices of those who served.

Today is a day of reflection.

May we reflect on the value of life.

Today is a day of past battles.

May we be aware of those who were and are touched by the reality of war.

Today is a day of new beginnings.

May we always be seeking Jesus promised peace

A peace that this world cannot give.

Let us worship God.
