

A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE

HISTORICAL TIMELINE

1969

Decriminalization
The Beatles released Abbey Road
Pierre Trudeau is Prime Minister
Herbie the Love Bug is in theatres
Minimum wage was $1.35

1980'S

AIDS (Still ongoing but both, a tragedy and galvanizing point for LGBTQQ2 rights
Rock Hudson came out
Elizabeth Taylor started
Brian Mulroney was Prime Minister
Bette Midler released "Wind Beneath My Wings"
Goonies was in the theatres
Parents everywhere were trying to find Cabbage Patch Kid dolls for their children

1995

Sexual Orientation added to the Charter
OJ Simpson went on trial in the US
Jean Chretien was Prime Minister
Alanis Morissette released her first album
A liter of gas cost $0.52.4
In the US, a man named Scott Amendure was killed in a hate crime because he admitted that he had romantic feelings for a friend who was featured on the Jenny Jones talk show

1996

Triangle School opened
Rosie O'Donnell had a very successful daily talk show
Jean Chretien was still Prime Minister
Oprah launched her book club
Dolly the Sheep was cloned
Independence Day was the movie blockbuster of the year

2005

Same Sex Marriage
Hurricane Katrina hit the south east US, especially New Orleans
Youtube was founded
Paul Martin was Prime Minister
Pope John Paul II died
The Great East Coast Black Out

2012

Toby's Law
Gangnam style is a dance craze from Korea
Stephen Harper was Prime Minister
Whitney Houston died
Fifty Shades of Grey hit the bookshelves
The NHL locked players out for half the hockey season

2017

Gender Identity added to the Charter
We Demand an Apology
Justin Trudeau is Prime Minister
Beyonce is the Queen of Music
Moonlight, a film about a black gay man's coming out process, won the Best Picture Oscar
The fidget spinner became a kid craze